

Anna Bowman

Meeting Points: Inclusion or Integration

Inclusion: The action or state of including or of being included within a group or structure.

Integration: Combining things with one another so that they become a whole.

Bringing into equal participation or membership

I would like the conference to consider and discuss the fundamental question related to Inclusion and Integration and defined as above.

Do our organisational policy and practice not only include but also integrate?